DESCRIPTION

Teti is an iconic lamp designed by Vico Magistretti in 1970, embodying simplicity and timeless elegance. Made of thermoplastic material, its essential structure allows for versatile use as a ceiling or wall light, adapting perfectly to any space. Teti's clean lines highlight the light source, offering a diffused, enveloping light that enhances the room without overpowering it.

Available in various color options, Teti represents a perfect balance between design and functionality, ideal for those seeking minimalist lighting. Thanks to its discreet character and material quality, Teti is suitable for both residential and commercial projects, becoming a distinctive element in any environment.

Its simple, iconic design reveals a modular intelligence, making it perfect for freely composing groups and sequences of elements.
