Dal Piece

Made in collaboration with the Norwegian artist Anna Maria Ofstedal Eng, Dal Piece acts as both an intriguing sculpture and a functional object for the home. Crafted entirely from recycled casted aluminium, the unique piece features curvy, rounded shapes and is originally inspired by a mountainside in Gudbrandsdalen, Norway, where the slow trickle of water has eroded the hard rock and carved out a distinct stone cave with captivatingly curved walls. Place the sculptural and sophisticated Dal Piece in any space of the home to let it challenge the boundaries between art and functionality.
